New Bridge Will Cost Less Than First Estimates

Cut-Rate Span Ready to Go, Can Be Put to Use In 40 Days

It took a lot of financial maneuvering but Truckee's new bridge across the Truckee River is virtually assured following a session of the Nevada County board of supervisors Monday.

Not only is the span practically a certainty to be ready for use within a couple of months but under terms arranged by Supervisor H. G. Loehr, a saving of more than $50,000 in costs will be gained over the engineer's estimate of $100,000.

Loehr said the board has contacted the Moore Dry Dock Company at Oakland, which has a prefabricated span ideally suited for the local crossing which has been offered at a total cost of $41,700 installed. The Moore bridge has the highest load capacity under state specifications, with two vehicle lanes and a pedestrian walk. It was designed for a state job which was abandoned and because of its adaptability for local use, the supervisors were quick to seize the opportunity.

Official approval is expected from the board at Monday's meeting. Last Monday the absence of Supervisor Frank Rowe failed to secure the required unanimous approval for an emergency project but it is believed no difficulty will be experienced in culminating the transaction.

Under the financial arrangements, taxpayers of the entire county will be out only $6,714, Loehr explained in recounting the procedure taken by the board. According to the board chairman, the $41,700 would be obtained as follows:

1. Use the $6,800 which was set up in the budget for primary construction on the Brockway cutoff;
2. Match this with $6,800 of the money still to come from the state under Chapter 20 allotments;
3. Use $6,714 from the $32,000 budgeted for county bridges in 1951-52;
4. Match this with $6,714, the balance of money due the county under Chapter 20;
5. Temporarily use the $15,000 unused portion of the state's $75,000 "Christmas tree" fund allotment to the county;

This will produce a total of $42,028, enough to pay $41,700 to the bridge contractor and leave a little over for contingencies, the local supervisor said.

The $15,000 "Christmas tree" left over was originally to have been spent on road projects in the third supervisorial district, represented by J. C. Couglan of Columbia Hill. Pressure of work in the road commissioner's office has put other matters ahead, however.

Now, according to Loehr, Coughlan has consented to have the county "borrow" this money. It is to be paid back and put aside for its original purpose as soon as the U. S. Forest Service pays the county for the collapse of the old bridge, which gave way under an overloaded truck taking equipment to a forest fire.

Two Truckee Nimrods Bag Bears This Week

At least two local hunters, Vern Shattuck and E. L. Kohl, have bagged a bear during the past week.

Shattuck, hunting with Orlan Waters near the old Schaeffer Mill, killed a 150-pound bear without undue adventure, but Kohl recounted a different story with his 600-pounder killed near Lake Tahoe. The treed bear was wounded and when Kohl approached, the bear dropped from the tree and took after the hunter, who kept circling the tree until one of his two dogs, tied nearby, broke his hitch and came to his master's rescue.

Distracted by the dog, the bear was quickly dispatched by Kohl.

If the dance proves successful, frequent repeat performances will be given, Rau said.

GALE BROWN HURT WHILE FLAGGING ON HIGHWAY JOB

Jack Whitley, 19, Reno, was cited for driving without due caution and not having his vehicle under proper control on a mountain highway following an accident one mile west of Floriston Friday afternoon in which Gale Brown, Truckee division of highways employee, was injured and hospitalized.

State Patrolman William Gautsche said Brown was standing beside his equipment flagging traffic when the Whitley machine struck him, inflicting serious injuries to his left leg and causing other lesser hurts.

The officer said the Reno vehicle skidded 144 feet before stopping. The driver said his vision was blurred by the sun as he rounded a curve and that he did not see the flagman in time to avoid the mishap. Brown was taken to Reno by Truckee ambulance and his condition was described as improved.

Harvey Hocker's Car Damaged $800 Worth

Damage of over $800 was done to Harvey L. Hocker's car last week when it collided with another vehicle, the driver of which was not identified, one mile west of Truckee on Highway 40.

Hocker told the highway patrol he started to pass two other vehicles traveling in the same direction when the vehicle ahead also turned out without signalling and he was forced into a piece of heavy road equipment operated by William Bradbury. No one was injured.

Tahoe Dentist Is Victim In Freak Nevada Accident

Dr. Holmes Painfully Hurt As Mare Rolls During Hoof Trimming

BROCKWAY— Dr. H. M. Holmes, Brockway dentist, was painfully injured Saturday in a freakish accident near Gardnerville reports here indicate.

He recently moved the family's three horses, which summered at the lake, to a ranch at Gardnerville for winter pasture. On Saturday, accompanied by Jim Domato, he paid a visit to the horses. Their hooves needed trimming so Dr. Holmes began to work on Blondie. The horse stood patiently for some time but finally tired of standing on three legs, she simply toppled over on the dentist, pinning him beneath her.

Rescued by his friends, he was rushed to Washoe General Hospital at Reno. On Monday he underwent four hours of surgery, having the torn muscles in his shoulder and left arm sewed together again. He was reported in extreme pain and his physician declares he must wear a heavy brace from his neck to his waist for at least six weeks or more. Dr. Holmes' office will be closed for the time being.

Nor was that all the bad luck for the day. Later one of Domato's colts caught his neck in a barbed wire fence and was badly cut. Returning home in his car ahead of Mrs. Holmes' car, Domato ran into a deer on the highway and smashed in the front of his automobile.

Halloween with its trick or treats, its parties and parades, passed more or less quietly in Truckee. The witches were out in force but there was little material damage done, with the exception of a few battered garbage cans, the wide distribution of debris in some sections and a considerable soaping of windows. For the most part the youngsters of the community were well behaved, finding more pleasure in the parties arranged for their enjoyment than in doing mischief. Looking back, we can see a rather marked change in the Halloween attitude of the younger people and can't help but wonder if some of this ever-prevalent talk of juvenile delinquency isn't overplayed sometimes. We believe the youngsters in our community are a pretty good bunch of kids as a whole and that provided with proper environment will develop into good, wholesome citizens.

SMOKING, TRACTOR AND NEW BUS TOPICS AS TRUSTEES MEET

The governing board of the Tahoe-Truckee Unified School District meeting last Friday entered into a lengthy discussion regarding student smoking but came to no conclusion, accepting the fact that the problem is governed by state statute and is not a subject to be disposed of by a local board.

The directors ordered a new Case tractor with a bulldozer and loader for use at the school grounds for snow removal and landscaping purposes. They also directed the delivery of a new 66-passenger Gillig coach with a Hall-Scott motor to add to the fleet of buses needed for transportation of children in the district schools.

W. A. Loynd, president of the board, presided and Fred Pedley of Soda Springs, recently appointed to the board attended for the first time.

Dog Sled Team Brings Out Frog Lake Caretakers As Vehicles Fail

After several unsuccessful attempts at rescue, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Nelson, caretakers at the Nat Smith home at Frog Lake, last Thursday were removed from their precarious location following the heavy snowstorm which isolated them.

The Nelsons, who spend the winter at Loma Rica, Butte County were well supplied with food and fuel, but Smith feared they might have attempted to return on foot from the lofty lake and so several attempts were made to reach the home Wednesday and Thursday.

Rescue was finally affected by Slim Schieble and his team of Siberian huskies. Mrs. Nelson was brought out on the dog sled and Nelson was provided with snowshoes for the trip to Euer Valley where cars awaited the party.

Jeeps driven by Clarence Osburn and Harry Digesti attempted the trip to Frog Lake Wednesday but the 36 inches of heavy snow defied all efforts after leaving Euer Valley. Other heavy trucks also bogged down and "cats" were not available.

Thursday, Osburn and Digesti took Schieble and his nine dogs and sled as far as Euers' and that night the dogs and driver went into the Smith home where they found the Nelsons well and safe but a bit alarmed at the unpredicted heavy snowfall which will isolate the lake until near summer.

The Nelson's car had to be abandoned and will likely not be be removed from its present location before summer.

The California Highway Patrol at Truckee was notified of the accident by Reno police and an investigation is being conducted.

The new car was badly damaged in the fall and witnesses wondered how the occupants escaped death.

Drunk Drivers In Local Court Pay Total $800 Fines

Edward Hanna, 40, Sacramento salesman, was fined $500 and ordered to spend 30 days in the county jail and surrender his driver's license for 90 days following his conviction in the Justice Court of F. W. Wilson Monday on charges of drunk driving, reckless driving and violating the county sobriety ordinance.

His arrest by Patrolman Earl Crane followed a minor collision tween Hanna's car and one driven by James McClaren, 54, San Francisco, Sunday morning on Donner Summit.

Following his release from the Nevada County jail, Hanna is scheduled to go to a Placer County court on similar charges.

The mishap occurred nine miles west of Truckee and although Hanna stopped at the time, he declined to await the arrival of patrol officers and was nabbed near Baxter by Patrolman Crane. The officer said Hanna proved abusive when accosted and returned to Truckee.

Two Pay Fines

On Friday, Edward John Hale Jr., San Francisco, was fined $250 by the local justice when he was found guilty of drunk driving, driving with an invalid license, driving on the wrong side of the highway and for violating the county sobriety ordinance. His license was also suspended.

Truckee Woman Drowned During Storm Last Week

Mrs. Ineichen's Body Found In Flooded Ditch Near Highway 40

Last rites for Mrs. Betty Ineichen, 45, wife of Ernest Ineichen, Truckee barber shop proprietor, were held at Oakland Monday following her tragic death here last Wednesday night.

Mrs. Ineichen drowned in a drainage ditch a block from their new home at Gateway Park during the snow storm Wednesday night. The body, covered with ice and snow, was not discovered until about midnight Thursday by Deputy Sheriff Wesley Fair, a member of a four-man searching party which had been organized at the request of her husband.

The Ineichens, who had made their home here since October 15, 1950, were preparing to move into their newly constructed home in Gateway and in the meantime were residing in the Hodson dwelling on the old Reno road. Wednesday, Mrs. Ineichen went to the new home, leaving her husband at his shop in town. When she did not return that evening, her husband presumed she had remained at the new house and was not overly disturbed.

Fails to Return

When she failed to return the next day, however, he became alarmed and that evening walked to the Gateway house. He found their car nearby with a flat tire. An examination revealed his wife's purse, containing a considerable sum of money, in the seat of the car. Their pet dog showed indicatons of not having been fed and Ineichen made a summary search of the neighborhood without results.

He telephoned his wife's brother, Harry Zak, in Oakland, thinking perhaps she had communicated with her family. Finding no clue to the disappearance there, he asked Constable N. F. Dolley to assist in a search. The officer summoned Fair and with Dr. L. D. Nelson and Dr. Robert Affeldt, an intensive search was started.

Started for Help

Tracks covered over by fresh snow showed that Mrs. Ineichen had started toward Highway 40, presumably for help to fix the tire on her car. This was about 11 o'clock Wednesday night, according to all indications. It was difficult to follow the obscured tracks but the searchers, with flashlights, made a thorough survey of the nearby terrain.

After more than a hour's fruitless search and just when they were about to give up, a partly filled package of cigarettes and a book of matches were found directly across the road from the Raymond Hintz home and only 30 feet south of Highway 40. This spurred the searchers to renewed efforts and a short time later Fair's flashlight fell on a rounded object covered over completely by snow and ice. Thsi was found to be the body of the unfortunate matron.

Two Feet of Water

The water in the ditch was perhaps two feet deep and it was indicated that in the darkness and blinding snow, Mrs. Ineichen stumbled or slipped into the ditch, face downward and was unable to arise.

A native of San Francisco, Mrs. Ineichen had spent her entire life in Oakland where the family moved during the 1906 earthquake and fire. Beside her husband and brother, she is survived by her mother, Mrs. Bertha Zak, who spent the summer here with her daughter and who was planning to return as soon as the new home was completed.

The entire community was shocked by the tragedy and sympathy is extended to the surviving relatives.

Driver Cited After Hitting Rear of Chas. Kay's Car

Paul Lee McCade, 41. Oakland, suffered minor injuries and was cited for speeding and not having his car under control after his machine smashed into the rear of one operated by Charles E. Kay, 31, clerk at the state quarantine station near Truckee. The mishap occurred Tuesday morning at 12:30 and Officer William Gautsche made the investigation.

McCade's car skidded 67 feet before hitting the Kay car. He told Gautsche he did not see the car ahead of him although the tail lights were burning.

90% For! 10% Against } Time to settle...

Railroad workers are represented by 23 standard unions. By mutual agreement, 20 of these unions—comprising about 1,200,000 men, or more than 90%—are working under wages and rules agreed to by them and the railroads. But leaders of three unions—with only about 130,000 men, or less than 10%—still refuse, after more than a year of negotiations, to accept similar wage and rules agreements. These are even more favorable than the terms recommended by the Emergency Board appointed by the President.

Yes, it certainly seems to be finally about time that the leaders of the three unions stop their delaying tactics—their quibbling. But the leaders of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors continue to refuse. They continue a course of dillying and dallying. It is definitely time to END THIS QUIBBLING!

On June 15, 1950, an Emergency Board appointed by the President under the terms of the Railway Labor Act—an Act largely fathered by the unions themselves—made its recommendations on certain wage and working conditions ("rules" in railroad language) which had been in dispute between employes and the railroads.

More Than 90% of Employes Accept

Since then, terms equal to or better than the Board recommendations have been accepted by about 1,200,000 railroad employes—more than 90% of the total of all workers. They are represented by 20 of the 23 standard railroad unions.

Less Than 10% Refuse

But three unions—with about 130,000 men, or less than 10% of the total—have refused to accept, even after months of negotiations. These three unions are the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors. These are three of the so-called "operating" unions. Already the highest paid men in the industry, their leaders demand still further advantages over other workers.

In all, there are about 270,000 operating employes. But not all of them, by any means, are represented by BLE, BLF&E, or ORC. As a matter of fact, less than half—132,000 to be exact—are in these three unions. More than half—about 140,000—are in other unions, principally the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. What makes the whole situation so hard to understand is that these 140,000 operating employes are working under wages and rules which the leaders of the other 130,000 say they cannot agree to.

What Do the Railroads Offer?

They offer these three unions the same settlement which was contained in a Memorandum of Agreement signed at the White House on December 21, 1950, by four brotherhoods and the railroads. Later these brotherhoods sought to repudiate this agreement. But on May 25, 1951, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen signed a complete agreement carrying out the principles of the Memorandum Agreement of December 21. They have been working under this agreement since May 25.

What About Wages?

Under the terms of the agreement, yard engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving a wage increase of $.34 an hour ($2.72 a day) and road engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving an increase of 19½ cents an hour ($1.56 per day). Large sums of retroactive pay have already accrued and if the agreement is carried out, will be paid promptly.

What About "Cost of Living" Increases?

The White House Agreement includes an "escalator" clause under which wages will be geared to changes in the Government's cost-of-living index. Two such increases—April and July, 1951—have already been paid to the 90% of railroad employes covered by signed agreements.

What About the 40-Hour Week?

The White House Agreement calls for the establishment of the 40-hour week in principle, for employes in yard service. The employes can have it any time after January 1, 1952, provided the manpower situation is such that the railroads can get enough men to perform the work with reasonable regularity at straight time rates. If the parties do not agree on the question of availability of manpower, the White House Agreement provides arbitration by a referee appointed by the President.

What Else Do the Union Leaders Demand?

The continued quibbling of the leaders of the three unions has to do principally with rules changes, which have already been agreed to by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. Of these, the principal one seems to be that having to do with so-called "interdivisional service"—runs which take in two or more seniority districts.

The union leaders would bar progress and efficiency in the industry, and better service to the public, by maintaining a situation where they can arbitrarily stop a railroad from establishing such interdivisional runs. The carriers propose that if a railroad wishes to set up an interdivisional run, the railroad and the unions should try to agree on such run and the conditions which should surround its establishment, and if the railroad and the unions can't agree, the matter will be submitted to arbitration.

But the three union leaders still refuse.

Rules Can Be Arbitrated

The railroads have not only offered these three unions the same rules agreed to by the BRT and covered by the White House Agreement, but have even agreed to submit such rules to arbitration.

The Industry Pattern Is Fixed

With the pattern so firmly established in the railroad industry, it seems fair to suggest that the leaders of BLE, BLF&E, and ORC stop their quibbling and take action to make the railroad labor picture 100% complete. Certainly today's economic and international situation calls for a united front. And certainly no good reason has been advanced why these three unions should be preferred over all other railroad employes.

NORTH TAHOE

by THELMA BURROUGHS

A finer place to live cannot be found than Lake Tahoe say Dot and Bert King upon their homecoming after a few week sojourn in southern California. They are mighty glad to be home for the winter at Kings Beach. Their son, Norman, started his journey to Japan last Tuesday aboard a transport in Uncle Sam's service. Norman will assume his duties on a minesweeper upon reaching his destination.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Free and son, Larry, have closed their place, The Dunes, and expect to leave the lake this week for warmer climes during the snow season.

An organization to be known as the Council of North Tahoe Organizations is in its formative stage with a third meeting scheduled for Friday night, November 2, at 8 o'clock in The Burroughs. This is to be the second meeting of ten persons, one selected from each of ten organizations, for the purpose of writing up by-laws for approval at a general meeting to be announced at a later date.

Lou Boyce enjoyed a wonderful trip over the weekend to visit her daughter, Mary, and friend, Mrs. Ann Woodland, at Hillsborough Oh, yes, Dick and Jimmie had a nice time too.

The Earl Noel family wishes to thank those who offered kindness and sympathy during their recent bereavement in the loss of their wife and mother, Pauline Noel, who passed away last week.

Ambros Furrer, Crystal Bay, is reported to have very recently been informed by physicians after careful study of x-rays that he has three fractured vertebra as a result of his injury in a bulldozer mishap during the Truckee Short Cut forest fire.

The Kings Beach PTA report an excellent response to their spaghetti dinner and to the Halloween party for the children with free cider and donuts, all kinds of games and fun, last Tuesday night at Kings Beach School.

Ruth and Bill Misner are mighty proud, and justly so, of their new Stop and Shop in one of Joe Kings buildings in Kings Beach.

The Smith Grocery in Kings Beach will remain open during the coming winter.

County Treasurer Laid Up Following Nasty Tumble

As a result of a fall on a slippery street near the court house in Nevada City, Miss Elma Hecker, popular county treasurer, is under treatment in a hospital at Grass Valley for brain concussion. Her physician reports her condition as not serious but warned her to remain in the hospital for some time or until completely recovered.

Miss Hecker was carrying a small suitcase, a briefcase and her purse and in attempting to save her load, her head struck the pavement. Her right elbow was also hurt. Friends hope for a speedy recovery.

Scouting Program Subject At Rotary Club Meeting

Truckee Rotary Club met at Donner Lake Lodge Monday evening and enjoyed one of the best programs of the season. Dr. Harry M. March of Grass Valley showed pictures of the trip to Europe as part of the Boy Scout jamboree which was held at Salzburg, Germany. He was one of the medical doctors sent by the Scout organization from America and had the care of 650 boys on the trip.

Del Raby, Tahoe area field executive, and John Street, local assistant Scoutmaster, were present. C. E. Osburn introduced the program.

In addition to the program, the local Boy Scout troop were guests with Kenneth Osburn, Frank Giovannoni, Ray Brown, Don Matson, Ronald Price, Ed Rankin, Jim Allen, Don Sites, Tom Dolley, Wilbur Conyers, Jim Harris, Stan Rasmussen and Don Metteer. Visiting Rotarians also present were Harold Stark, Tahoe City; Fred Baker, Brockway; and E. I. Allen, Loyalton. Tom Buell gave an interesting account of his trip to the Northwest. Patrolman Roy Stallard was received into the membership of the local club.

Second Contractor Ailing, Doctor Issues Warning

J. R. Wolert, Truckee building contractor, stricken a week ago by pneumonia and pleurisy, was reported greatly improved but will not be able to return to work for several weeks, Dr. L. D. Nelson said. In the meantime, another local builder, Rex Reid, was reported by the doctor to be stricken with the same two maladies.

Dr. Nelson warned that fatigue and exposure at this time of the year are dangerous and said sudden changes in body temperature might well result in pneumonia.

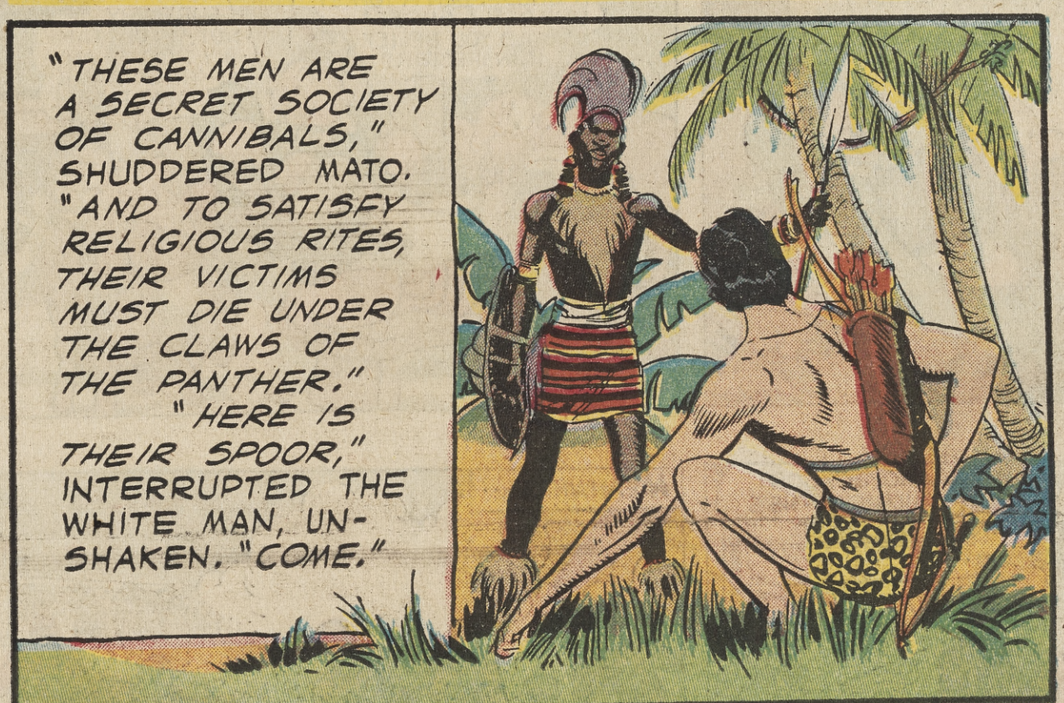
Tarzan®

by EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS®

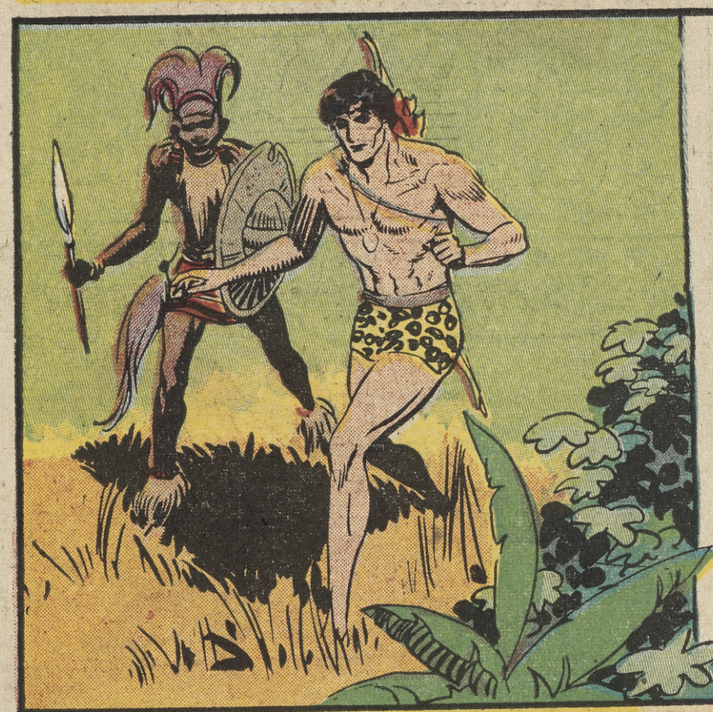
HIS MEMORY LOST, TARZAN WAS HUNTING WITH A NEW FRIEND, MATO, WHEN THEY DISCOVERED A DEAD MAN -- WHO, ACCORDING TO THE NATIVE, HAD BEEN KILLED BY THE PANTHER MEN!



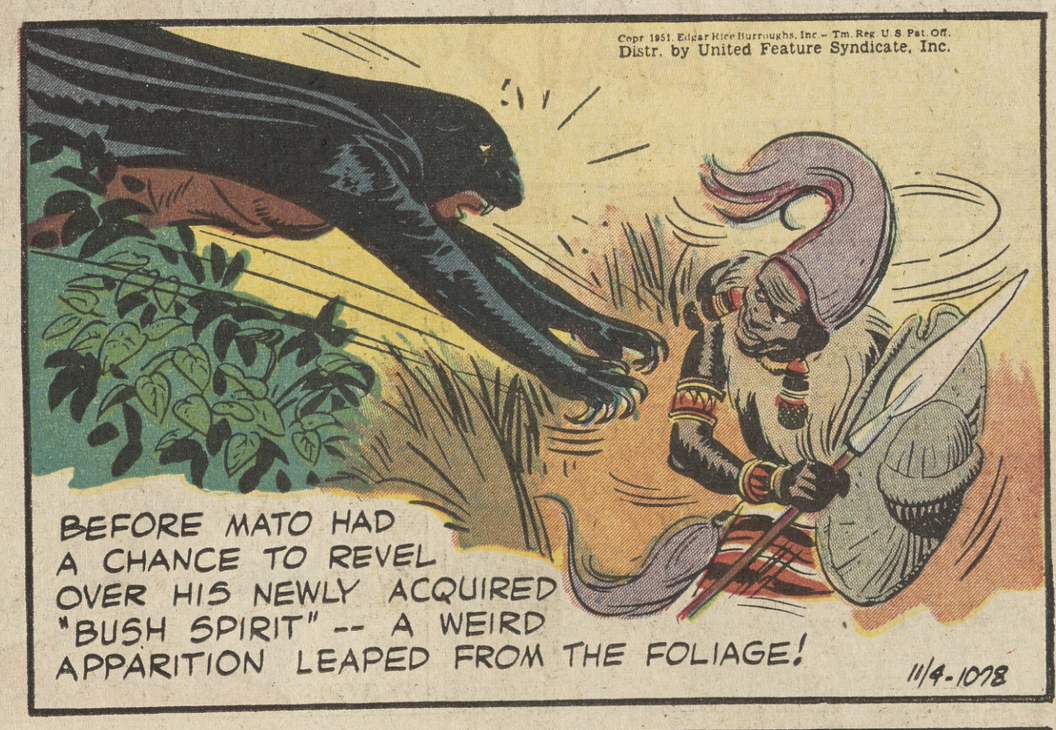
"THESE MEN ARE A SECRET SOCIETY OF CANNIBALS," SHUDDERED MATO. "AND TO SATISFY RELIGIOUS RITES, THEIR VICTIMS MUST DIE UNDER THE CLAWS OF THE PANTHER."

"HERE IS THEIR SPOOR," INTERRUPTED THE WHITE MAN, UNSHAKEN. "COME."

THE NATIVE MARVELED AT THE BRONZED GIANT'S PROWESS. BUT WHY WAS HE HELPING HIM?. COULD THIS BE A PROTECTING SPIRIT -- HIS NAMESAKE? "BUSH SPIRIT!" CALLED MATO, EXCITEDLY.



"WERE YOU ADDRESSING ME?" ASKED THE STRANGER. "YES, BUSH SPIRIT," ANSWERED MATO, HOPEFULLY. "VERY WELL, BUT NOW YOU MUST BE SILENT," SAID THE WHITE MAN. "WE ARE NEARING THE ENEMY!"



BEFORE MATO HAD A CHANCE TO REVEL OVER HIS NEWLY ACQUIRED "BUSH SPIRIT" -- A WEIRD APPARITION LEAPED FROM THE FOLIAGE!

11/4-1078

TARZAN SPUN ABOUT AT MATO'S SCREAM, BUT THREE OTHER HIDEOUS CREATURES PRESSED FORWARD, THEIR STEEL TALONS OPENED, CLAWLIKE, TO SEIZE HIM -- PANTHER MEN!
